The Continental Group Names Dan Cammarata as Chief Financial Officer

HOLLYWOOD, FL– (January 3, 2011) – The Continental Group (TCG), the largest property management company in Florida, proudly announced that it has hired Dan Cammarata to Chief Financial Officer. Cammarata’s responsibilities will include corporate accounting, finance, treasury, financial systems, human resources, budgeting, capital planning and corporate governance. Cammarata will report directly to CEO Tim O’Keefe and will also serve as a member of the Executive Committee.

“Dan has been an asset and key contributor to each organization he has been with,” said Tim O’Keefe, CEO of The Continental Group. “We’re proud of this hire as Dan is the ideal candidate as we head into a significant growth mode for this company.

Cammarata joins The Continental Group from Azopharma Product Development Group, where he served as CFO for the Hollywood, Fla. based company. Cammarata brings over 25 years of financial experience as a CPA and skills in helping companies achieve their full potential by providing professional guidance in accounting, finance, financial analysis, cash management, corporate governance and strategic planning expertise. “What an honor to play such an important role in a company that continues to dominate the Florida market and is looking to continue its amazing growth,” added Dan Cammarata.
