Fort Myers Beachside Resorts Lure Northerners for Winter Getaway
Tropical vacation over pristine waters of the Gulf of Mexico

FORT MYERS, FL (March 8, 2011) – The Continental Group Realty's hospitality division is pleased to announce the launch of "Fort Myers Beachside Resorts Winter Tropical Vacation," offering Northerners an affordable vacation to Southwest Florida - a favorite destination overlooking the pristine waters of the Gulf of Mexico.

The Fort Myers Beachside Resort and Condos Tropical Vacation package offers Northeasterners and our Canadian neighbors their choice of four resorts located on beautiful Estero Island in Fort Myers Beach: the Sandpiper Gulf Resort, Seaside All-Suite Resort, Casa Playa Resort or Cornerstone Beach Resort. These resorts are a tropical haven providing welcome relief from the frigid winter, while offering various package options that will fit most budgets. A perfect winter vacation getaway is available and affordable!

The relaxing and beautiful Estero Island sanctuary is home to all four resorts located on miles of white, sandy beaches along the Gulf of Mexico with exceptional sunsets and an extraordinary shell collection that attracts visitors worldwide.

Estero Island is a perfect winter getaway vacation with warm tropical breezes, exquisite dining and luxurious accommodations. In addition, shopping centers are there for browsing and affordable family-friendly eateries are plentiful. For open sea enthusiasts, dolphins are frequently spotted swimming along the crystal clear Estero Bay. Marinas throughout Estero Island are perfect for boating adventures including romantic sunset cruises, sightseeing cruises and deep-sea fishing. For nature lovers, cross a bridge at the southern tip of the island and escape to Lovers Key State Park – a harbor for wildlife, home to West Indian manatees, bottlenose dolphins, roseate spoonbills, marsh rabbits, and bald eagles.

Sandpiper Gulf Resort, located in the middle of Estero Island, offers 63 large modern suites designed with British West Indies decor on a premier beachfront setting.
